Dear Frank,

My apologies for taking so long to respond to your letter of last July. As you know, we've been bouncing our requirements versus your considerable talents, but just haven't been able to make the right connection at this particular time. I wish it could have been otherwise, but I am most appreciative of your willingness to consider serving in the Intelligence Community.

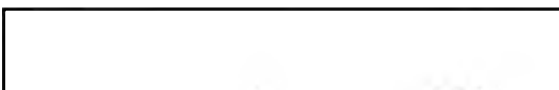

Again, thanks and all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Stan,

After a couple of false starts I am finally leaving this place at the end of the week. Please keep me in mind for the Intelligence community staff. If you win the battle, which my sources seem to think you will, you may need someone with contacts on both sides of the street. Grade and status are flexible. Most important, I would prefer to stay in government, working on those things I know best.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,
